Lions, Odd Fellows Sell $20,850 In Bonds; Sequoia Show Wednesday

A jointly-sponsored street bond sale by the Lions Club and the Odd Fellows kicked the lid off the Fifth War Loan Drive in Redwood City Saturday with a total of $20,850 in bonds sold.

The drive officially opened Monday but all bonds sold since June 1 are being counted toward the quota.

"Capturing" the top prize of the day, a pint of bourbon whiskey was Comdr. D. F. Brown of the U. S. Navy, a former Redwood City doctor who bought $5000 in series "E" bonds. A number of other "surprise packages" were auctioned off during the afternoon.

As an entertainment feature, a children's program was given with children being called off the street by Announcer B. Berman for impromptu performances. Jeanette Demma was pianist for the program.

With the drive officially opening today, the spotlight of the opening days of the campaign to get citizens to "Buy More Than Ever Before" will be focused on the world premiere showing of a top Hollywood motion picture at the Sequoia Theater Wednesday night.

Tickets will be given to purchasers of bonds at any bank, the post office or the Sequoia or Redwood Theater.

Menlo Board Adopts Budget

A tentative budget of approximately $75,000, based on a school tax rate of 40 cents, was adopted by the Menlo Park School Board Tuesday night subject to minor revisions and approval by the San Mateo County Superintendent of Schools, Miss Pansy J. Abbott.

It represents an increase over last year's budget to provide for two extra teachers.

A contract for repainting the trim on the Fremont School was awarded to E. A. Jorgensen of Menlo Park.

The meeting adjourned early as one member, John W. Morey, was absent because of illness. Those present were Louis A. Anderson and George Angus.

$287,060 Increase Shown

San Mateo County Board of Supervisors have adopted a budget of almost $3,000,000 for salaries and maintenance and operation of county government for the fiscal year 1944-45.

Final figure allowed in the budget is $2,981,777. This is $287,060.83 more than the amount allowed in the 1943-44 budget.

Among the additions to the budget made at the public hearing this morning was $25,000 for the juvenile home construction fund. This is half the amount recommended by Joseph Leo Hyman, chairman of the County Probation Committee and by County Executive Frederick Peterson.

Supervisor Chmn. Fred E. Beer said a new juvenile home probably could not be constructed within the next three years and stated the $25,000 would be the start of a gradual accumulation of funds.

Supervisor Edward McDonald, however, went to bat for construction of a new juvenile home in the immediate future. He argued that funds should be made available in case priorities for the construction could be secured.

"Juvenile delinquency is growing all the time," McDonald declared, "and it won't wait two or three years until we can get it (the juvenile home) built."

F. H. Thill, representative of the California Taxpayers' Assn., declared that "you have an emergency," and that when an emergency exists money could be taken from funds other than the juvenile home construction fund.

Mrs. H. S. Dana, president of the San Mateo County Preventorium and a social worker for the county for 30 years, declared that the emergency is not two or three years from now, but that the emergency is now. She suggested that the construction be built in units, and that additions be made to the juvenile home as needed.

Mtantime, members of the County Probation Committee were to meet this afternoon to discuss construction of a new juvenile home and reorganize the juvenile department setup. Reports have been rampant that Juvenile Officer Francis Robinson would be asked to resign. These reports were strengthened with the report that applications have been made for Robinson's post.

Among other items which raised the total amount over the figure previously published, were provisions for $7000 for installation of a water system at Canyon Sanatorium, $1200 for a new fence for a playground area at the present juvenile home site and $3840 salary additions.

The county budget for the fiscal year 1944-45 passed today:

Tribune, Lions Club Ask Citizens To Help Send Boys, Girls to Camp

Swimming, hiking, handicraft, athletics and games, campfire—

Those are a few of the healthy activities in which boys and girls who attend camps this Summer will participate. At least one camp session is already filled to capacity.

However, there are boys and girls right around your home who would get the "thrill of a lifetime" if they could go to camp. They have the desire but they don't have the money.

There still is plenty of chance to register for some of the camp sessions in Boy Scout, YMCA and Girl Scout camps. All that is needed is money—from you.

The Lions Club and the Tribune are sponsoring a fund so that youngsers who do not have enough money will not be deprived of the privilege of going to camp. All you have to do is bring or send money or checks to the Tribune, 30 California St. You may leave your name or contribute the money — any amount—anonymously.

If you plan to contribute, you are asked to contribute early, so that reservations may be made with camp headquarters.

100 Citations In Menlo Park

Menlo Park like the rest of the State of California, Saturday night between 8 and 12 p.m. felt the effects of a drive against traffic violations.

Almost 100 citations were handed out by highway patrolmen who stopped 1320 cars near the traffic signal on El Camino Real at Menlo Park.

Citations were given for the most part to those having no tail light, next for having one or two burned out headlights.

Failure to have the proper operator's license or license plates also caused some to be cited.

More than 20,000 cars in all over the State of California were stopped by squads of highway patrolmen, peace officers and military police who set up traffic traps and red lantern blockades on streets and highways.

Of these stopped, 7000 were cited for various traffic violations.

The drive against violations was made as a result of meetings of the Bay Area Traffic Executive Committee comprising nine counties.

Co-operating with the highway patrol in the drive were the Atherton and Menlo Park police.

Red Cross To Continue Project

Redwood City Chapter, American Red Cross, Tuesday voted to sustain an arts and skills project at Dibble General Hospital with an appropriation of $50 per month after July 1. Members of the chapter executive board were advised that a $1500 appropriation, split jointly between the San Mateo County, Redwood City and Palo Alto chapters would finance the project until June 30.

The executive board also voted $50 to help finance a food canning school at Sequoia Union High School, with the proviso that the war council vote an equal amount.

Dr. James Thornton, chapter chairman, announced sale of the chapter's mobile canteen unit to the Order of Eastern Star. The fraternal organization will donate the unit to the Santa Ana Red Cross Chapter for use at an army air base.

Mrs. Harry C. Day was appointed chairman of the camp and hospital service. She succeeds Mrs. Elizabeth J. Rudy, whose resignation was accepted with regret.

Help a Boy Get Camp Training

Tech. Cpl. Marvin McIntyre, who is now visiting his parents here after spending the last three years with the army in Alaska, last week declared to a group of men and boys gathered in honor of Boy Scouts and their fathers that what he had learned as a Boy Scout and a Sea Scout had helped in saving his life since he has been in the army.

That story can be told by countless men and boys from Redwood City and throughout the United States now serving in the armed services.

And a lot that Boy Scouts learn is learned in camp.

Many boys from Redwood City and surrounding communities are going to camp this Summer. Many girls also will go camping. Other boys and girls will not get to go—unless they get financial aid. The Lions Club and the Tribune are requesting that you provide this aid.

Money may be brought or sent to the Tribune, 30 California St. Checks should be made payable to the Lions Club-Tribune Campership Fund. Persons planning to contribute are asked to do so early so that reservations may be made with camp headquarters.

CHANGES DATE

Mr. Kenneth Van Gundy of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. will test pressure cookers at the Red-Cross Canteen on Friday of this week from 9 to 12 instead of Thursday as formerly. Next week the testing will be on Thursday as usual.

S.P. To Salute Fighters As War Trains Roll On

While victory trains roll on without interruption, Southern Pacific men and women paid special tribute June 14 to their more than 15,000 fellow employes now scattered along worldwide warfronts. Homage was paid the 56 who have already been officially reported dead, and the 21 others who are missing in action.

The 15,000 would be enough for a full army division, it was pointed out, but they are in every branch of the armed forces. From letters and official reports it is learned that they are stalking the enemy through sweltering jungles, over Italian mountains, and on the high seas. They're flying fighters and bombers over all the battle areas, manning bases in Iceland, landing troops on beachheds. Their railroad skill is helping the Army Military Railway Service keep supplies rolling right up to the battle lines. They are poised in England for the drive into Europe, and were among the first into North Africa for the sweep that cleared the Mediterranean. And if they're not on the war fronts, they are in training camps readying themselves for the fight.

Honoring these fighting men and women on "Southern Pacific War Service Day," June 14, the 100,000 employes on the railroad's home front held patriotic programs at various points that did not interfere in any way with the thundering war traffic. Special attention was given the Fifth War Bond Drive, as well as appeals for blood donors and for increased participation in all civilian war activities.

S.M. County Probation Group Names Building Committee

Despite the fact the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors Tuesday morning set aside only $25,000 for the construction of a new county juvenile home, the County Probation Committee Wednesday afternoon named itself to a buildng committee to formulate plans for construction of a new juvenile home.

"I'm frankly disappointed," Joseph Leo Hyman, chairman of the committee, declared when informed that the amount recommended to the supervisors by himself and by County Executive Frederick Peterson had been cut in half.

In a private session following a public meeting the probation committee decided to work as a whole on a building committee to determine what the need is as to size, type and location. Hyman said that information would be sought from other counties and that the committee would meet to discuss building plans within the next two weeks.

The committee appointed Lee Alderman, Redwood City school teacher, as assistant probation officer. The appointment is subject to confirmation of Juvenile Court Judge A. R. Cotton.

Another assistant will be chosen after July 1, Hyman said.

No mention of the work of Juvenile Officer Francis Robinson was made at the public meeting and Hyman said there was none at the private session. Hyman declared that Robinson had volunteered to follow the committee's program of prevention.

"You couldn't ask for better cooperation than that," he said.

Following the public meeting, civic leaders and members of the press were taken on an inspection tour of the rundown juvenile home built for use as a jail in 1870. Among most noticeable conditions at the home were the large hunks of plaster off the walls, the bareness of the walls, and poor mattresses on some of the beds.

There are two beds to the room in the home. Visitors found the home to be clean and none had criticism of the personnel. It was the building which drew the criticism. Ironically, the juvenile court on the second floor, which is used once a week, is in excellent condition with nice floors, walls, desks and chairs.

The supervisors yesterday appropriated $1200 for a wire fence to be built at the present juvenile home site to encircle a playground area.

Purpose of the probation committee's public meeting was to discuss the entire juvenile problem. Hyman said the primary problem of the probation committee is the prevention of delinquency and secondly it is its duty to do something about it.

Mrs. H. S. Dana, president of the San Mateo County Preventorium and social worker for the county for 30 years, declared that when there is delinquency there must be a cause. She said that it is often the home that causes delinquency. She said that when a child is taken to the juvenile home, its home should be thoroughly investigated.

Mrs. Dana listed lack of nourishment as a cause of delinquency. She also said she thought a new juvenile home is badly needed.

Judge Edward I. McAuliffe, member of the committee, said that he had opposed improvements at the present site of the juvenile home for years in the hopes that a new juvenile home would be built. He said, however, "let's make sure we get the proper site."

"We have never had a juvenile home in this county," Judge McAuliffe said. "We have had a jail for young people."

Hyman said the committee hopes to have tangible plans within a reasonable length of time and that he hoped that construction of a new building would be started within the year.

Hyman declared that he had been informed that priorities could be secured for construction of the home.

Will T. Van Voorhis, superintendent of the San Mateo High School Dist., complimented the probation committee for its work and promised co-operation with it. Among others who discussed the juvenile problem with the committee were Mrs. Barney Bristo of the Red Cross home service; Mrs. George Spanne, executive secretary of the Society for Crippled Children; Mrs. J. A. Branson, social worker for the San Mateo Catholic Charity, and Louise Barker, teacher at Sequoia High School.

Members of the probation committee are Chairman Hyman, Judge McAuliffe, George Hall, Edward H. Cosgriff, Charles N. Kirkbride, Mrs. Theresa Altieri and Mrs. J. F. Steele.

Sequoians Attend Services

The Rev. Walter B. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist Church, last week at baccalaureate services admonished members of the Sequoia High School graduating class that "unless you have your own self respect you are poor company for yourself."

The Rev. Mr. Smith, speaking on "The High Cost of Low Living," warned that every day is a D-Day — Decision Day — declaring that the youths themselves must decide the type of lives they are going to live, physically and socially.

He declared the human body is a precious thing and advised the graduates to control themselves physically. He also appealed to them to choose the high way socially.

"Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap," Rev. Mr. Smith quoted from the Bible.

He urged the youths to align themselves with God, and admonished that the ways of life are unknown "but you are safe when your hands are in the hands of God."

The invocation was given by the Rev. Burton M. Palmer, pastor of the Woodside Congregational Church. The Rev. Ralph A. Benson of the North Fair Oaks Community Church read the scripture lesson; the Rev. Donald E. Hall of the Menlo Park Presbyterian Church led prayer and the Rev. Charles E. Ward of the First Congregational Church gave the benediction.

The processional and recessional were played by the Sequoia orchestra under the direction of Max L. Gelber. The girl's choral group, directed by Otis M. Carrington, sang "I Would Be True," and a mixed choral group sang "Now Thank We All Our God," with Rev. Mr. Ward reciting the words. The orchestra played "Ave Maria" and the audience sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Paul Lawrence, who was ordered to duty with the navy today, was presented his diploma by A. Clarence Argo, superintendent.

Ministers on the platform besides those who took part in the services were the Rev. H. A. Hammer, Free Methodist Church; Bishop W. Y. Farnsworth, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; the Rev. William E. Irvine, Church of Christ; Rev. Charles Fritz, Menlo Park Trinity Episcopal Church, and Rabbi Emil B. Cohn, Menlo Park Temple Beth Jacob.

Graduation exercises will be held on the Sequoia campus Friday night.

Menlo Park Firemen Extinguish 2 Blazes

Fire caused from a defective fireplace in the Joseph H. Bergman home at 563 Santa Clara Ave. was quickly put out with slight damage early Wednesday morning by Menlo Park firemen.

Redwood City C.C. Directors Approve 'Budget of Ideas'

Near the half-way mark of 1944, the board of directors of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce last week gave approval to a "budget of ideas" for the balance of their term.

Graham Adams, chairman of the community development section, promised a worthwhile program from the activities of his group. He placed a hospital, a hotel, and an underpass high on the section's list of objectives.

Reporting for Charles Nelson, chairman of the merchant's section, Mgr. E. W. Butler announced preliminary plans for a novel Christmas program in downtown Redwood City this year. The merchants will meet at 7:30 today in the old library building at Broadway and Jefferson Ave. to offer their co-operation with the July 4 city celebration at Hawes Park.

M. A. Gooding, chairman of the industrial section, said his committee is pledged to encouraging desirable industry, obtaining reasonable prices for industrial land, securing favorable freight rates by land, sea and air, and to a program of co-operation in meeting labor problems. He said he expects to have every Redwood City industry represented at the section's meeting July 27.

The membership committee headed by Fred Gibbs announced that 46 new members have been added to the chamber of commerce roster.

Butler's plans for a statistical study and map of the business district were approved. Provisional approval was given to plans for a chamber of commerce booklet.

Youths Deserve Camping Trip

More money is being made now than has been made in many years.

Yet, that doesn't help the boy or girl whose father is dead and whose mother is not able to work full time. A boy or girl from a family such as this needs and deserves camping privileges as much as the boy or girl who is in more fortunate circumstances.

You can help an unfortunate boy or girl go to camp this Summer by contributing to the Lions Club-Tribune Campership Fund. Any amount — large or small — can be given. Bring or send money to the Tribune, 30 California St. Checks should be made payable to the Lions Club-Tribune Campership Fund. Persons who plan to contribute are asked to do so early so that reservations can be made with camp headquarters of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and the YMCA.

Menlo Park, Atherton Open Drives

Menlo Park with $423,000 and Atherton with $517,000 set as their quotas in the Fifth War Loan Drive are expected to raise almost a million dollars. Over that amount was raised during the last war loan by the two communities.

Bond purchasers who commute were urged to buy their bonds at home so that the local drive might receive credit.

The war finance committee of both cities while conducting separate drives reminded citizens that every bond counts as the drive gets under way with the big invasion in Europe.

So long as this war lasts, men will fight and die and fresh recruits must be drafted. Weapons will be destroyed; new ones must be produced. Money will be spent and War Bonds must be bought.

So let us back up our boys on the fighting fronts and invest in that extra war bond today.

C.C. Section Plans Auction

The merchant's section of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday night in the Recreation Bldg. appointed Ed Kaufman chairman of a committee to procure merchandise for the Victory Bond Auction to be featured at the coming Fourth of July Civic Celebration here.

Held under the sponsorship of the non-profit Peninsula Celebration Assn. Inc., the day-long fete in prewar years was famed on the peninsula.

Beginning at noon in Hawes Park on Roosevelt Ave., numerous events such as horseshoe pitching, foot races, outdoor dancing, archery contests and the like will be held, winding up in the evening with a huge bonfire built by Boy Scouts.

O. Olson and Hal Honore last night reported that plans were being drafted with E. F. B. Ridgeway, who had charge of the 1941 Redwood City Rodeo, for participation in the event by horsemen of the county.

Present last night at the meeting to represent the city's interest were O. Olson, Red Morton, Cliff Woodhams, Ned Butler, James P. Hearne, Jack Biane, Alice Bertelsen, John Ryan, Jake Buhler, Charles Mitchell, Bill Curran, Stan Perkins, C. L. Grimmer and Hal Honore.

Motel Owner Faces $50,000 Suit in Tragedy Aftermath

Suit for $50,000 was filed today in San Mateo County Superior Court against Mary Charles, owner of the New Garden Auto Court by relatives of Sgt. Walter Kelly, 29.

Kelly's body was found overcome by gas last February in one of the apartments of the motel. Filing the complaint were his mother and father, Mary C. and John J. Kelly and his sisters, Gladys Kurtz and Viola Revello and brothers, Vernal and Floyd Kelly.

In asking $50,000, the complaint stated that Kelly had contributed $40 a month to the support of his parents.

An all-woman coroner's jury later blamed a gas heater having inadequate vents for the death of Kelly, his friend, Cpl. John Wojciechowicz, 25, and a woman companion, Mrs. Edith Scott, 38, of Emerald Lake on Feb. 11.

Kelly and the woman were found dead by motel attendants on Feb. 12. Corporal Wojciechowicz died later from the effects of the gas at Dibble General Hospital.

A statement taken at his death bed by army officers attributing the death of Kelly and the woman to the effects of the gas was a highlight of the hearing by the coroner's jury.

The official verdict was "dead from carbon monoxide poisoning caused by a gas heater."

Youths Invent Game; Firemen Keep Busy

An ingenious new game devised by Belmont youngsters las Monday afternoon started a fire at the intersection of Fairway Dr. and Arbor Ave., which had it gotten out of control would have threatened the Belmont Country Club now occupied by the Oak School, the Belmont Fire Department reported.

Matches shot from a slingshot made of a clothespin and rubber band were the cause of several recent grass fires in the Belmont area within the last few days, according to the fire department.

The Menlo Park Fire Department also reported three grass fires apparently caused through carelessness late yesterday afternoon at Ravenswood and Laurel, Sixth and Middlefield and in North Palo Alto at Pope and Woodland.

None of the fires caused any damage and all were quickly extinguished, officials said.

Sequoia Program On KQW Tomorrow

"Music in Wartime" was presented last week at 1:30 p.m. over KQW School of the Air by students of the third period choral class at Sequoia Union High School.

The narrative written by Norman Walsh is the story of two boys in the front line who are thinking of their home and what it has meant to them.

O. W. Carrington, head of the music department, was in charge of the program.

MEN IN SERVICE

Word was received Wednesday of the promotion of Hugh M. Tallent, who is stationed with the army air corps at Patterson Field, O., from first lieutenant to captain. Captain Tallent, who enlisted in the army in July, 1942, and received his second lieutenant's commission at Miami Beach, Fla., is a brother of Paul R. Tallent, 838 Hudson St., and of Otto Tallent, Tribune city editor.

Captain Tallent is one of four brothers in the armed forces. Cpl. W. Frank Tallent is stationed with the army in Italy, Cpl. Cyrus E. Tallent is stationed at Buckley Field, Colo., and Pvt. Claude G. Tallent is stationed at Stockton Field.

DOUBLE GOOD NEWS FOR RAYMOND THAYER

Raymond Thayer, now stationed in the South Pacific, was the recipient of a double potion of good news last week.

Just a few days after he received a promotion to seaman first class, he received word that he was the father of a girl, named Joan Geraldine. His wife lives at 2712 Westmorland Ave.

Raymond is the brother of Mrs. E. A. Martin, 1132 Cleveland Ave., Clarence Thayer, also of the U. S. Navy and Jack Thayer of Menlo Park.

Seaman 1/c Thayer entered the navy in February, 1943.

Peterson Agrees With Hyman

County Executive Frederick Peterson Wednesday joined Chmn. J. L. Hyman of the County Probation Committee in declaring that a new juvenile home will be built as soon as practical.

Both Peterson and Hyman declared that priorities for the construction can be secured.

Peterson said he had been informed by the War Production Board that priorities could be secured if the building is a war-time necessity.

The board of supervisors yesterday set up $25,000 in the budget for a new juvenile home. Peterson said he thought the $50,000 he had recommended was a reasonable amount to ask, but said that although only $25,000 was appropriated, "money will be forthcoming."

(For news of yesterday afternoon's probation committee meeting see page 7.)

Barrer Gives Instructions To Scouts Attending Camp

As scores of excited scouts in every community of the county made preparations for the opening of Camp Pescadero on Sunday, June 25, Camp Director Edward A. Barrer last week issued the following instructions to scouts leaving for camp either by chartered bus or private cars:

1. Have all camp mail directed to "Camp Pescadero," San Mateo County Council, Boy Scouts of America, Memorial Park, Loma Mar, California.

2. Carry personal belongings in a packsack or suitcase and roll all bedding in one compact bundle, plainly marking all pieces with tags giving your name, address and troop number.

3. Arrive at camp not later than 11 a.m. on Sunday, June 25, with entire registration, physical examination and fees completed at scout headquarters in advance.

For scouts going by bus:

1. Camp chartered busses from the San Mateo-Burlingame Transit Co. will leave promptly at 7:45 o'clock from the corner of California Dr. and Howard Ave. in Burlingame on Sunday morning, June 25. No stops or pickups can be made enroute.

2. Wear your official scout uniform — but no hat — the official camp uniform consists of: khaki shorts, cotton or wool stockings, cotton or wool shirt and neckerchief.

For scouts going by private car:

1. Plan to arrive at Camp Pescadero not later than 11 a.m., and check in there with the camp adjutant, since luncheon will be served promptly at 11:30 o'clock and dinner will not be served until 6 o'clock. The following auto route is suggested. Drive by way of El Camino Real to Redwood City, to Woodside; thence via La Honda Hwy. over Skyline Blvd. to La Honda on to La Honda Park; take left-hand turn marked with Auto Club sign for San Mateo County Memorial Park and follow highway direct to Memorial Park. Scout Camp Pescadero is located inside Memorial Park proper turning immediately upon entering the main entrance to Memorial Park and driving inside the park approximately one-quarter mile to camp gates.

Special arrangements have been made for parents to visit Camp Pescadero if they desire, on Saturday afternoons and Sundays, with a special dress parade and review by the County Scout Band scheduled Saturday at 5 p.m. and Sundays at 1 p.m.

COMMUTERS: Old Movies Served Under New Titles

BY JOE CABOOSE

One of our readers complains about the old movies the industry is dragging out of the moth balls and serving to the public under new titles . . . and at top modern prices. He thinks the theaters are getting money under false pretenses; that if, because of the war and a shortage of actors, etc., they have to fill in with "smoked ham," shey should at least be honest with their patrons, label the pictures for what they are and charge accordingly.

★ ★ ★

Since our long wars in the glue factory prevent frequent attendance at the movies we question our competence to discuss this matter. Were it not for the fact that our critic is an old theater man himself (and we don't mean Tom Kane!) we would not even bring the subject up. But we think we know how he feels. We paid one of our infrequent visits to the cinema the other night and for three hours we were bored stiff . . . at the regular rates! It would have been four hours, but we couldn't take it any longer!

★ ★ ★

One of these antique pictures would have been enough, but they had to give us a double feature! They had renamed one the "Mystery Bombardier," which obviously had been made years before the word bombardier was used in aerial warfare. Their planes were the old biwing jennies that followed the first world war. In one scene, a ground crewman looks up at a power-diving dare-devil and says, "He must be doing close to 200 miles an hour!" It was the best laugh the audience had all evening.

★ ★ ★

The second "big feature" showed Rita Hayworth in what was undoubtedly her first movie. It bore the alluring title "Lady from Frisco," but there was not one scene that even purported to be in or near San Francisco. It was a rehash of early California history centering around Monterey and having to do with murderous gringos and gay caballeros. The lady was from old Mai-he-co, not Frisco, and her dresses hung almost to her ankles, which dated the picture about 1936.

We felt like shouting, "we was robbed!" It wasn't the price we paid so much as the imposition upon our time. Our war schedule at the glue works allows us not more than two nights out a month, for diversion and recreation. And then we get roped in on a deal like that! Yes, we know exactly how our friend feels.

Commuter personals: Jim Toso, former club treasurer, has sold his home on Iris, and is moving to San Francisco; war reasons. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ross and their good friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodmansee, celebrated their silver wedding anniversaries on June 1 and June 10, last. . . . Elmer, by the way, has been re-elected chairman of the Redwood City Recreation Commission. . . . Wrex Cruse addressed a recent luncheon meeting of the Lions Club on the subject of postwar aviation.

Speaking of speaking, we listened to an interesting and highly intellectual talk yesterday morning at the father-and-sons breakfast in Mt. Carmel hall, delivered by Dr. James W. Thornton, prominent educator and head of the Red Cross, who discussed juvenile delinquency under the title of "Education of Character." Doctor Jim asked the fathers some mighty embarrassing questions right in front of their sons. "Do you ever boast, in the presence of your children, about getting gas without coupons?" he asked. "And do you chuckle over the steaks you got without points?" If you do, he concluded, you are breaking down the moral fibre of your children and unwittingly teaching them to be cheats.

Last Tuesday—June 6—is a day that will live forever in history . . . and in our hearts. It was on that day that men of indescribable courage stormed the fortress of Europe. Just try to imagine the sentiments of the first 30,000 paratroopers who plunged into the pre-dawn darkness over a hostile land bristling with guns in the hands of a desperate enemy! Their slogan might well have been, like that of the gladiators inscribed on the walls of the ancient Colosseum: "We who are about to die, salute you!"

We were tremendously impressed when we heard from a number of our colleagues that their respective places of business halted work long enough on D-Day to offer a brief prayer for the success of the invasion. In some places the action was spontaneous and required no prompting or suggesting.

This was a beautiful thing . . . men of all faiths, and perhaps some of no faith, bowed in prayer for a common cause. But prayer without good works is unavailing. Today we have the opportunity for the good works. Today—June 12—starts the nation's Fifth War Loan drive. We can now prove in a concrete way how sincere were our prayers for the success of the invasion and the speedy arrival of V-Day. Continue to pray, but BUY BONDS! Don't expect the Lord to do it all!

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Giannini were hosts to the directors last Tuesday night. It was the final meeting of the present board. After the business session in the Giannini rumpus room, the group repaired to the garden where Mrs. Giannini served a delicious supper topped off with her famous chocolate cake.

Homemakers' GUIDE

How To Dress Up Salad Dressings

A GOOD ready-to-use salad dressing is, in itself, guaranteed to add zest to a meal. But there are scores of simple little ways to make them even more zestful. For instance:

FOR RICH COLOR, combine shredded raw beet and the juice of ½ lemon with 1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise—adds interest to any raw or cooked vegetable salad.

★ ★ ★

FOR HOT VEGETABLES, try this home-made hollandaise: mix 1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise, 2 tsps. prepared mustard, 1 tbsp. lemon juice, and a dash of salt—piquant on cauliflower, for example.

★ ★ ★

FOR MEAT OR FISH, combine 2 tbsps. finely chopped chives (green tops of onions will do), with 1 cup salad dressing—toothsome on vegetable salads, too.

★ ★ ★

FOR DESSERTS, mix 1 cup salad dressing with ⅔ cup fruit juice (any kind), and use generously as a topping for fruits—may be sweetened by adding a bit of honey.
